LOCAL UNION OFFICERS INSTITUTE

The UAW Education Department will hold its Local Union Officers Institute on June 8-13, 2025. The conference will be held at the Walter and May Reuther UAW Family Education Center in Onaway, Michigan.

The institute will offer broad training for local union officers to learn their roles and responsibilities as leaders of a fighting union. New and seasoned officers alike will find this conference beneficial, and all will walk away with greater clarity about the expectations of their role.

This institute will provide local union officers with a clear understanding of their administrative responsibilities. Role-specific training will be provided for local union presidents, vice presidents, recording secretaries, and financial secretaries.

ELIGIBILITY TO ATTEND

This conference is open to UAW members in good standing who are interested in learning more about their role as leaders. This institute is best suited for local union presidents, vice presidents, financial secretaries, and recording secretaries. Both new and seasoned officers are encouraged to attend.

Local unions representing members in all sectors and industries - including TOP, Gaming, IPS, Higher Education, Heavy Truck, Agricultural Implement, Automotive, and others - will find this training useful and are strongly encouraged to send officers to attend.

Attendance is mandatory at all sessions and is taken daily. Local unions will be responsible for payment of all lost time.
